KEPPEL MAKES NEWS!

85
Bill Terrazas

Headlines do not make the story.
They only provide a framework which enables clever reporters to reiterate the facts.
They serve as summations — but lack details.
This year's theme, "Keppel Makes News," may serve as the headline by which you may relive many exciting events.
It is your job, as self-appointed journalists, to recall the happenings behind the pictures.
"Keppel Makes News" means YOU in the News.
"Keppel Makes News" means Memories in the Making.

DEDICATION

Dedication is a characteristic not uncommon to those who possess a true devotion and loyalty to their profession.

Dedication is an ingredient which sets some men apart from others; it makes their love a little stronger and their contributions somewhat greater.

Dedication is the predominant quality of a man who has spent the greater part of his life serving home, community and the field of education — Mr. Bruce Lawson, Principal of Mark Keppel High School.

Mr. Lawson began his career as a student. Locally, he attended Garfield Grammar School and Franklin High School in Los Angeles, where he was Student Body President. Later, he went on to obtain his Bachelor's Degree at Occidental College and his Master's Degree in Education at the University of Southern California. One of his early teaching assignments was in the Social Science Department at Alhambra High School. In 1928 he was appointed Senior Advisor there and then was promoted to Boys' Vice Principal. He came to Keppel in 1940. In 1945 Mr. Lawson was appointed Principal, and he has served at this post for the past twenty-two years.

Mr. Lawson has been a dedicated member of the community, as well. As past Chairman of the Red Cross Board, Past President of the Exchange Club, Honorary Member of the Lions' Club of Monterey Park and Regional Director of the California Association of Secondary School Administrators, he has displayed true capability and leadership.

To Mr. Lawson, who will be retiring this June, the students and faculty would like to express their deepest thanks; "thanks for attending all of the plays and proms and games, and giving us all of your faith and understanding."

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Robert H. Lane

Mrs. Dorothy W. Mather

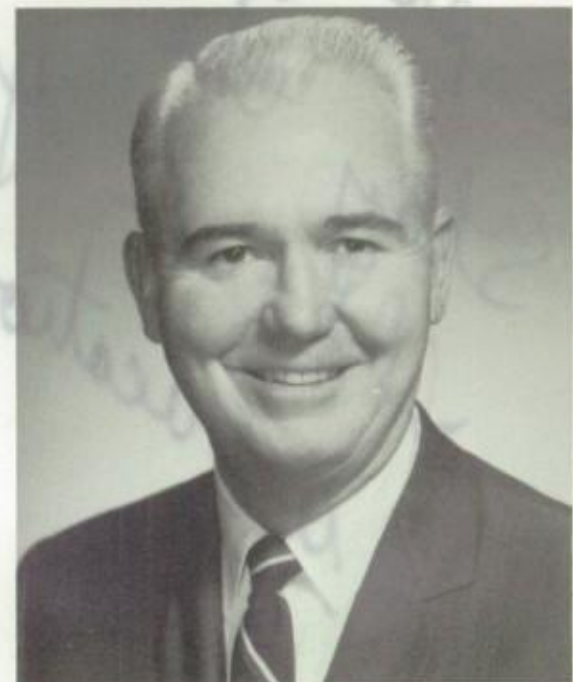

Mr. Jerome Fluster

Despite what you might have thought, the Board of Education does not include the boy who sits behind you in class and sleeps away the period. Actually the Board of Education consists of fine very hard-working, community-elected people who give their services to the school district without pay: President Carl Van Winkle, Vice-President Andrew J. Westerfield Jr., Mrs. Dorothy W. Mather, Mr. Robert H. Lane, and Mr. Jerome Fluster.

They operate our school, constantly strive for better teaching methods, select our heavy but informative books, and approve the purchase of supplies. In case you want to see them in person, their meetings are held on the first and third Monday of each month in the Administration Building.

Mr. C. C. Scanlon
Assistant Superintendent
in Charge of Business

"Hey! who ran off with all the money!?"— is a question that has never come up in the Alhambra School System and probably never will. This is because the Alhambra schools are supervised by four honest, dedicated men: Dr. Drake, Dr. Enszt, Mr. Gray, and Mr. Scanlon. They do for the district what our Principal and Vice-Principals do for our school. Besides handling the school funds, the Superintendents aid in choosing curriculum, hire the teachers and all those who work in and around our schools, and determine and supervise the way school subjects are taught.

The Superintendents have their offices in the Administration Building on 601 North Garfield Avenue and their office hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday, inclusive.

Mr. Lawson, Principal

ADMINISTRATORS

Mr. Lawson, the Principal of Mark Keppel High School, came here as Boys' Vice Principal in 1940, and in 1945 he became Principal. Mr. Lawson enjoys attending all of Keppel's activities, especially Homecoming. He likes seeing old Keppel alumni at the Homecoming, and gets much satisfaction when he sees they have become a success in life.

The Assistant Principal of Instruction at Keppel is Dr. Luttrell. Dr. Luttrell's job is mainly working with the teachers, helping them with their needs. He says Keppel has "One of the best teaching staffs in Southern California," and that "space is one of our biggest problems." Two of the things Dr. Luttrell likes most are reading and dealing with people.

Miss Arzt is the Assistant Principal of Guidance. She supervises the counselors, Health Department, and the Attendance Office. Miss Arzt likes to talk to students so she can help them finish their education. She enjoys reading, and especially likes traveling. Of Keppel she says, "The students are responsible, and are getting the best instruction possible from a well-trained faculty."

Mr. Kemp is the Assistant Principal of Business and activities. He handles the distribution of school supplies to the various departments. He is also in charge of all the school clubs. Mr. Kemp says attending the activities, especially the football games, is one of his jobs he enjoys most. If Mr. Kemp ever has any free time, he likes to spend it sailing and water-skiing. As for his job, he says the administration's most important function is to serve the faculty.

Mr. Caldwell Gb-Hot

Mr. Hix
Boys' Counselor

Our counselors help guide us through our rough times at Keppel. For example, when a student needs a class changed, is having trouble with his teachers, or needs advice, his counselor works with him to relieve his problems. Considering that there are about 2400 students at Mark Keppel High School, and only six counselors, you could safely say they have quite a work load to carry.

Mr. Hix, the Boys' Counselor handles discipline for the boys and assists Miss Arzt in the discipline for girls. Some other facets of his job include handling tardiness for all students and helping with other attendance problems. Mr. Hix is also very busy on football weekends supervising games and dances. We are very fortunate to have a man as sensible and friendly in this capacity.

The man in charge of Work Experience is Mr. Freeman. His job includes talking with students and their employers, to make sure that the student is getting the whole picture of how to be responsible and capable at his job. Mr. Freeman aides students in finding jobs quickly and says that Work Experience is "the best vocational guidance technique available."

Mr. Adams coordinates the activities of the Attendance Office and keeps the attendance record for each student. He also helps with Child Welfare, which assists the students in need of financial aid.

Coach Horst offers his expert guidance to physical education students.

Teachers are the backbone if not the marrow of education. It is with their help and influence that the student can be taught to think for himself, the ultimate goal of all teaching.

There are many ways in which a teacher can influence his students. A teacher tries to impart knowledge — he shares facts with his students. The student benefits in his later education, life, and employment. A teacher can counsel a student with a personal problem and thus help him in his relations with other people.

Faculty and students at Keppel have a great deal in common. Both live seven hours a day at Keppel communicating their thoughts and ideas with one another.

FACULTY

Students are not the only ones who gain from this relationship; as Anna, a teacher herself, says in "The King and I": "It's a wise and ancient saying . . . by your students you'll be taught . . ." Many teachers are still students themselves and go to school to work on higher degrees. The administrators are all former teachers.

There are some members of the faculty that we will always remember. Because of their thoughtfulness, skill, and dedication, the goals that we hold highest in our lives have a better chance of being fulfilled.

LIBRARIAN

For the first time in 27 years, Keppel's library is being enlarged to meet the expanding needs of a growing student body. Keppel was deemed eligible to receive federal funds from the Elementary-Secondary Education Act in order to finance the enlargement. To further the modernization of the library, new furniture and steel bookcases have been added. The steel bookcases hold more books in less space leaving more room for study desks. By moving the fiction and magazine sections, the reference area is now much more accessible. More students can be accommodated in the library than ever before. Mrs. Gnagy should receive much credit for her hard and unending efforts toward the enlargement and modernization of the library.

Enjoying the park-like atmosphere of Mark Keppel.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Dearest Aztecs,

Being a student at Mark Keppel is one of the most pleasurable things that I am enjoying in my stay in the U.S.A. I am truly having the most wonderful experience, and the most memorable one too.

I enjoyed answering your questions about my country, United Arab Republic (Egypt). In fact some of them were humorous like, "Do you ride a camel to school?" and "Do you live in a tent in the desert?" I hope I have been a good representative of my country in giving you a clearer image of what it is like.

I would like to end by saying something in Arabic, my native language, "Motshakkera ala kol haga", that is, "Thanks for everything."

Love,

Samiha Ashmawi

Hi!

My name is Poonpong Ittipong. Around school I am known as Pirt, that is my Thai nickname. I was in a university in Thailand before I came here. Though I am losing a year in the university, I am gaining a lot of experience and new insight, which I'm sure will affect my later life. It's really an experience to be an exchange student. When I return to Thailand, I'll continue my education and become a doctor.

My first week in Keppel was rather confusing for me, trying to find my classrooms and remember the names of all my new friends. Later on, everything came easier to me and I enjoy myself more and more everyday. I'm very glad I got in Junior Exchange (I have a lot of spirit as you can tell). I've helped my American friends to understand more about Thailand. I've learned a lot about America which I'll never forget.

Best wishes,

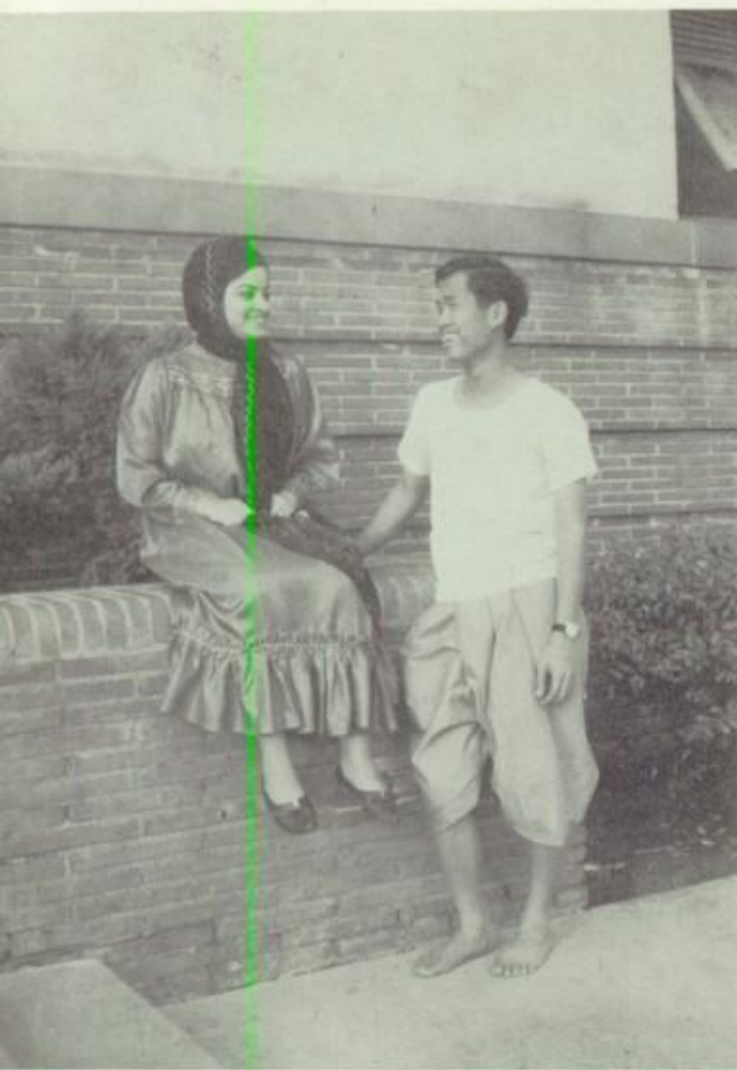

Pirt Ittipong

Time is passing fairly fast and soon this semester will be over. I think it's a good opportunity for me to say something before leaving.

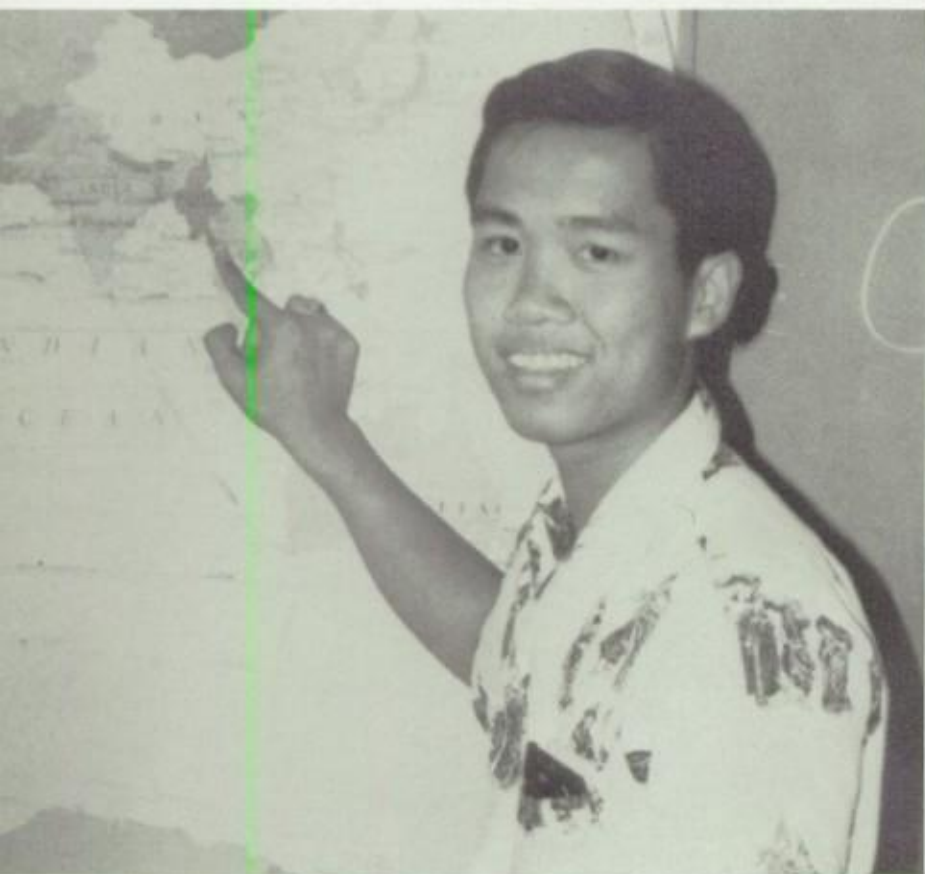

It's been a great experience for me to come to the U.S.A. and take part in the student life here. I've learned many things that I'll never forget. There are many things I'd like to say but surely it'll be very long. I'd wish to thank everyone who's helped me during this wonderful year.

I've been very pleased sharing everything with you, answering your questions, discussing and giving opinions about all the interesting things concerning Uruguay and the world we live in. I hope I always represented my country and my people in the best way I could. I hope you have another student from Uruguay, sent by our program "Youth for Understanding". Working together we'll make this world a paradise of love and freedom.

Muchas Gracias y Adios,
Daniel Urrestarazu

Mark Keppel's Senior Honor Society was founded in 1957 in order to recognize the outstanding members of each year's Senior Class. Sixteen students, eight girls and eight boys, are chosen from the Junior Class each Spring. These new members are selected on the basis of scholarship, social activity, and participation in school functions.

SENIORS

The Senior class officers and council have been kept busy because they have planned many of the all-school activities through the guidance of their advisor, Mr. Hix. They planned the skating, hayride, and billiard parties. The Senior luncheon and annual signing party are Senior activities which the officers also planned. In addition, they contributed to school spirit by entering a float in the Homecoming parade.

We extend our thanks to them for adding to the success of 1967.

JUNIORS

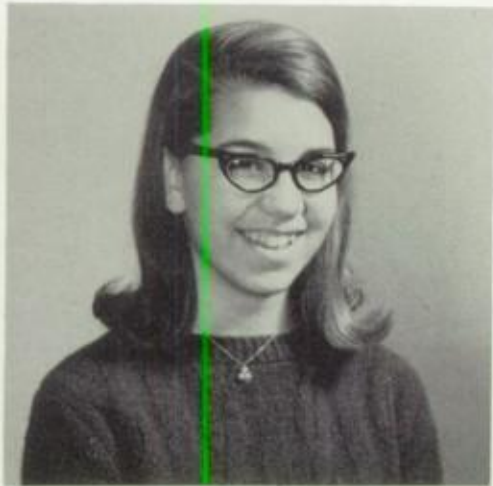

The Junior Class was busy this year, having sponsored many fun-filled activities. They continued the tradition by sponsoring "Keppel day at Disneyland." The Junior Class worked all year to provide a night of remembrance for all who attended the prom. The Class Council worked very hard on their Homecoming float, and their efforts were rewarded when they won first prize.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class accomplished a great deal this year. They enthusiastically promoted school spirit by sponsoring a successful Hardwood Hop in the Spring. Although their Homecoming float didn't win, it showed much originality and was a very worthwhile project. If this is any indication of what the class of 69 can do then Keppel is very fortunate to have them.

FRESHMEN

The Freshman year began with confusion and bewilderment. However, it didn't take them very long to adjust themselves to the school life at Keppel.

During the school year, the Freshman Class held many fund raising activities. Their biggest fund raising activity was their candy sale.

Their most important project of the year was the float that they entered in the homecoming parade.

FALL CAB

The Fall Cabinet was led by President Rudy Kadlub and Vice President Jan Robertson. The Fall Cabinet concentrated its efforts on school spirit by selling pom-poms, distributing rooter vests, and other such things. In promoting spirit, bright signs (such as "Burn the Ranch" and "Mush the Moors") were hanging in the cafeteria and the halls.

They also sponsored Christmas Dance, "Mistletoe and Silver Bells," which proved to be very successful.

Within the Fall Cabinet itself came many changes in the distribution and responsibilities as well as in organization. Leadership was conducted as a class with organized discussions, speakers, and suggestions for improvements.

The student body can well be assured that the Fall Cabinet worked with great energy.

SPRING

In representing the Student Body of Mark Keppel, the Cabinet revised the curfew of Monterey Park. In the same way, exchange Cabinets were held to promote a better understanding between the different high Keeping up this pace, they revitalized the Student Court. With the backing of the Administration and faculty, it has become a working model of what a student court should be.

The fall play, Farewell, Farewell, Eugene, took place during the 1800's. Keppelites, for the first time, were able to be the audience of a very unique play in that this was the first time one of the characters was portrayed by three 10-13 month-old babies. They proved to be very endearing actresses and actor.

The three-act drama was about two spinsterly women. One, Gertrude, played by Kim Sudol, is determined to visit her brother, Eugene. With this as an excuse, the character is one of a very cold, stoic person. Minerva, played by Shirlee Caringella, finds a baby at their doorstep and decides to keep it against the wishes of Gertrude. Gertrude later learns to become "human" because of the announcement that Peonie plans to marry. Gertrude then decides not to visit Eugene which leaves the audience with a happy ending.

AZTEC

Before any writing can begin, the page groups must meet and discuss all possible news leads. Linda Chesterton, Gill Coss, Joanne Floren, Marilyn Skidmore plan the next issue.

The AZTEC staff tends to remind one of a volcano which lies dormant for a few days and then explodes as the deadline approaches. Because of the distance between the journalism room and the Aztec office, staff members can be recognized by the large calf muscles which they have developed from running back and forth. What some reporters lack in literacy, they make up in their chess-playing ability.

Two mascots graced the journalism room 226. One was a football from the sports page, which enabled healthy young journalists to warm up their arm muscles before sitting down to write. The second mascot was the inseparable team of Lost Teepee and Chief, which was found at a swapmeet by a cub reporter.

Ron Kay and Joyce Reid, reporters on the front page, check out Mr. Lawson's "brown book" for schedule of events around school.

Much of a reporter's time seems to be spent in interviewing people. Here Linda DeValle gets some answers about school policy from Mr. Kemp.

STAFF

Staff members found it an enlightening (frightening?) experience to bring small mechanical toys to their sophisticated advisor, who then would proceed to manipulate them all over her desk with ecstatic glee.

All year the AZTEC staff competed with the TEOCALLI staff in bulletin board campaigns in the office they shared. The AZTEC staff also holds dear the memory of their secret Christmas party.

Members were able to exhibit their creativity in media beyond the AZTEC, such as cutting paper dolls and forming rubber cement sculptures.

Paraphrasing the immortal words of our cherished adviser, "I are glad it am over."

Coach Horst gives the sports lowdown to George Brown, Joe Pelano, Mike Larson, and Steve Shull.

While Laine Anshultz and Tina Merritt type up their stories, Leona Summer-ville fills out a hed (headline) sheet. The stories along with their hed sheets are then sent to the printers to be set.

When the set copy returns from the printer, Connie Adams and Janis Briggs decide on the layouts they want for their pages, then paste the articles on the dummy.

At the same time, Robert Estrada and Oz Levine proofread the copy before it is sent back to the printer for the final printing.

Now that the paper has been distributed during the lunch period, Grace Corsilius, business manager, bills the advertisers and Tricia Mason, circulation manager, sends AZTECs to the many schools Keppel exchanges with.

TEOCALLI 1967

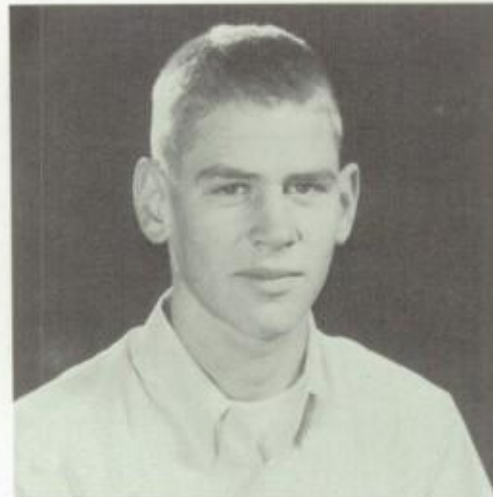

ADVISOR: Mr. Simon

What is the Teocalli? To many Keppelites it is just a yearly publication put together by a couple of unheard of people to preserve the memories of the past school year. To many of the faculty it is a book put out to disturb and interrupt their classes. To others it's just something to place their "John Hancock" in. The Teocalli is supposed to preserve memories, to disturb and interrupt classes (because it's so fantastic), and something to place your "X" in. But according to Webster's New World Dictionary, Teocalli is a temple of sacred Aztec gods. So don't say you don't know what Teocalli means.

The staff is made of hard-working individuals led by Editor Kathy Okutsu. The staff, their advisor, and associates helped carry the theme, "Keppel Makes News" through the 1967 Teocalli. "Much grass" to all of you!

ORGANIZATIONS

First Semester Secretary of Clubs—Janis Benedetti

Second Semester Secretary of Clubs—Sheryl Greenburg

The Secretary of Clubs has many important responsibilities. She coordinates the activities of the Keppel service clubs so that they best benefit the school and community. She keeps the bulletin board up to date, and helps the many clubs run as smoothly as possible.

At the conclusion of each semester she presents a trophy to the outstanding school service club and certificates of achievement to the runners-up.

AFS

This year's American Field Service Organization has been dedicated to assisting our foreign exchange students Samiha Ashmawi and Pirt Ittiphong. President of A.F.S. for the first semester was Fred Johnson. He and the members worked to promote the feeling of understanding between the organization and the students at Keppel.

ANNOUNCING

The purpose and aim of the announcing crew is as follows. To set up the announcing equipment in as short a time as possible in the most convenient and accessible place.

To see that all equipment is working properly so that all of the congregation attending may hear it clearly and persons announcing can move about as freely as possible.

Without proper placement announcing and knowledge of equipment it would be impossible for Keppel to have a complete running commentary of all games, dances, assemblies and activities taking place at our school.

BANK

As Bank Staff we have complete control of all financial matters of our school. We handle such things as writing all necessary checks for payments, making deposits of the money received each day, writing receipts of money from all school activities, and keeping a record of all transactions made throughout the school year.

CHESS

The purpose of the Chess Club in Keppel is to compete against other high schools in chess tournaments. In order to do this it is necessary to strengthen the ability of Keppel's promising chess players. In improving the strategy of the chess game it will also be necessary to have the best five players represent Keppel in high school tournaments. The five chess players will also have the responsibility of not only representing us in chess tournaments but also in improving the game of the other chess members.

The sponsor is Mrs. Loretta Morgan. The players are too tired to be identified!

FRENCH

The main purpose of the French Club of Mark Keppel is to familiarize the students with the language, customs, and people of French speaking countries. The students need not be taking the language to participate in the activities. To achieve this in the best manner we have many educational and social activities. We get speakers from the French Consulate and meet foreign exchange students from various countries. We sometimes view French art, slides, and films of France such as the "Umbrellas of Cherbourg". We take trips to Bush Gardens and have dinners at French restaurants. All these activities help to instill interest in the members for foreign cultures.

Members work directly with teachers, and thus obtain actual experiences which facilitate a realistic appraisal of teaching as their future vocation. Service to the school is an important facet of FTA. Besides assisting teachers and helping with such projects as the Math Field Day, members work with fellow students in a successful tutoring program.

Throughout the year, members visit various colleges and attend seminars dealing with a wide range of topics.

As a group the National Thespians take part in many activities, raising money in order that the club may attend movies and plays of special interest to the group. You need not be in a play to become eligible for National Thespians though a member must have worked in some capacity in the production of a play.

NFL

The National Forensic League is a national honor society open to all students interested in competitive high school speech and debate. The members of the organization travel to many tournaments during the school year, where they compete with students from all over Southern California in various speech events. The tournament sites range from Mark Keppel High School itself to Stanford University. Many find membership in the National Forensic one of the most rewarding high school experiences.

Besides organizing the traditional snow cone sales during football season and mistletoe sale during Christmastime, the members of the club have taken many interesting field trips, including science lectures at Cal Tech and a visit to the East Los Angeles College Planetarium. A major activity of the Science-Math Club is to sponsor the Junior High Field Day.

OLYMPIANS

Olympians is made up of all students interested in Latin and Greek culture. Originally called the Latin Club, it is a service club which gives service to the school and community. The past year they have entered a Homecoming float. During Thanksgiving, they donated food baskets to needy families. To promote yuletide spirit, they held an annual gift wrapping party in which all gifts were given to the Orthopedic Hospital. Christmas cards were collected to be sent to Korean war orphans. At Easter, baskets were filled with candy and toys and sent to children at MERCI.

PREXY COUNCIL

Prexy Council is made up of the presidents and Prexy Council representatives from each Tri-Hi-Y club. The officers are elected by the members of Tri-Hi-Y and serve during the school year 66-67. The purpose of Prexy Council is to unite the Y clubs from Mark Keppel with the Y.M.C.A. One of its duties is to plan and carry out the induction of new Y members for each semester.

Uniting Prexy Council with the other Y clubs from Alhambra and San Gabriel is Inter Club Board. Each school elects four representatives from which the officers who preside are elected. Representing Mark Keppel on the Board are: Shirley Brown (vice president), Donna Lenz (treasurer), Kathy Okutsu, and DeDe Jung. Inter Club Board plans the Sweethearts' Ball in February and the Annual Spring Banquet held in June.

Both Prexy Council and Inter Club Board work to unite all the clubs with the Y.M.C.A. The advisors are Pat Kohl and Bud Mott.

As the final pages of the 1967 Teocalli fall into place, a year of eventful activities comes to a close. The Aztec-Annual Office is filled with a sudden empty silence. The staff is no longer running back and forth typing copies, selling ads, or taking pictures to make the final deadlines.

This year's staff is unique in that every member has worked in some way on each section. At this time I would like to thank each member who contributed his free time in and out of school, to the Teocalli: Honey Anang, Ellen Campbell, Bonnie Cowell, Linda DeValle, Janis Fiorella, Wendy Gotch, Kathy Hintze, Ron Kay, Ellie Kuechler, Bob Luna, Lorraine Maddelina, Marsha Myers, Margie Okutsu, Kay Oliver, Corey Richardson, Susie Scobie, Joan Siede, Janis Steffen, Shirley Tisdell, Peggy Van Ouwerkerk, Jana Waring, and Patti Woolman. I wish to give credit to Mr. Grubbs and his photographers, Duke Ericksen, Terry Hale, Jim Valdez, and Jerry Walker for all the pictures throughout this book. Congratulations go to Gil Coss, the art editor for this edition, for a job well done. Thanks go also to Laurel Sternberg who created the fine cover design. I give special thanks to my co-editors Rose Acosta and Tricia Mason. Without their cooperation and willingness to work, the Teocalli would not have been completed.

The Teocalli Staff would like to thank Mr. Simon, their advisor, Mrs. Garcia, their business manager, and the administration and the faculty who gave their cooperation and consideration to the yearbook staff. Last but not least, the staff thanks you, the student body; for without you, there would be no headlines to write.
